

Digitron Packaging, Inc. and Local No. 243, International Brotherhood of Teamsters, AFL-CIO.
Case 7-CA-32494

February 21, 1992

DECISION AND ORDER

BY CHAIRMAN STEPHENS AND MEMBERS
DEVANEY AND RAUDABAUGH

On November 7, 1991, the General Counsel of the National Labor Relations Board issued a complaint alleging that the Respondent has violated Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the National Labor Relations Act by refusing the Union's request to bargain following the Union's certification in Case 7-RC-19456. (Official notice is taken of the "record" in the representation proceeding as defined in the Board's Rules and Regulations, Secs. 102.68 and 102.69(g); Frontier Hotel, 265 NLRB 343 (1982).) The Respondent filed its answer admitting in part and denying in part the allegations in the complaint.

On January 7, 1992, the General Counsel filed a Motion for Summary Judgment. On January 9, 1992, the Board issued an order transferring the proceeding to the Board and a Notice to Show Cause why the motion should not be granted. The Respondent filed a response.

The National Labor Relations Board has delegated its authority in this proceeding to a three-member panel.

Ruling on Motion for Summary Judgment

In its answer the Respondent admits its refusal to bargain and to furnish information that is relevant and necessary to the Union's role as bargaining representative, but attacks the validity of the certification on the basis of its objections to the election in the representation proceeding.

All representation issues raised by the Respondent were or could have been litigated in the prior representation proceeding. The Respondent does not offer to adduce at a hearing any newly discovered and previously unavailable evidence, nor does it allege any special circumstances that would require the Board to reexamine the decision made in the representation proceeding. We therefore find that the Respondent has not raised any representation issue that is properly litigable in this unfair labor practice proceeding. See Pittsburgh Glass Co. v. NLRB, 313 U.S. 146, 162 (1941). There are no factual issues regarding the Union's request for information because the Respondent admitted that it refused to furnish the information. Accordingly, we grant the Motion for Summary Judgment.

On the entire record, the Board makes the following

FINDINGS OF FACT

I. JURISDICTION

The Respondent, Digitron Packaging, Inc., a Michigan corporation, is engaged in the packaging of automobile parts for nonretail sale and maintains its principal office and place of business at 12350 Sears Drive, Livonia, Michigan, where, during the year ending December 31, 1990, in the course and conduct of its business operations, it had gross revenues in excess of $500,000 and performed packaging services valued in excess of $50,000 for Ford Motor Company, which during the same time period sold and shipped goods and materials valued in excess of $50,000 from its plants located in the State of Michigan directly to customers located outside the State of Michigan. We find that the Respondent is an employer engaged in commerce within the meaning of Section 2(6) and (7) of the Act and that the Union is a labor organization within the meaning of Section 2(5) of the Act.

II. ALLEGED UNFAIR LABOR PRACTICES

A. The Certification

Following the election held January 18, 1991, the Union was certified on September 30, 1991, as the collective-bargaining representative of the employees in the following appropriate unit:

All full-time and regular part-time production and maintenance employees, including shipping and receiving employees, hi-lo operators, packers, plant clerical employees, inventory control employees and quality control employees employed by Respondent at its facility located at 12350 Sears Drive, Livonia, Michigan; but excluding all temporary employees employed by Temporary Associates, Inc. and/or other employers, office clerical employees, professional employees, guards, production analysts and other supervisors as defined in the Act.

The Union continues to be the exclusive representative under Section 9(a) of the Act.

B. Refusal to Bargain

Since October 9, 1991, the Union has requested the Respondent to bargain, and, since October 21, 1991, the Respondent has refused. Since October 9, 1991, the Union has requested the Respondent to furnish information, and, since October 9, 1991, the Respondent has refused. We find that these refusals constitute unlawful refusals to bargain in violation of Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

By refusing on and after October 21, 1991, to bargain with the Union as the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of employees in the appropriate unit and by refusing on and after October 9, 1991, to furnish the Union requested information, the Respondent has engaged in unfair labor practices affecting commerce within the meaning of Section 8(a)(5) and (1) and Section 2(6) and (7) of the Act.

REMEDY

Having found that the Respondent has violated Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act, we shall order it to cease and desist, to bargain on request with the Union, and, if an understanding is reached, to embody the understanding in a signed agreement. We also shall order the Respondent to furnish the Union the information requested.

To ensure that the employees are accorded the services of their selected bargaining agent for the period provided by law, we shall construe the initial period of the certification as beginning the date the Respondent begins to bargain in good faith with the Union. Mar-Jac Poultry Co., 136 NLRB 785 (1962); Lamar Hotel, 140 NLRB 226, 229 (1962), enfd. 328 F.2d 600 (5th Cir. 1964), cert. denied 379 U.S. 817 (1964); Burnett Construction Co., 149 NLRB 1419, 1421 (1964), enfd. 350 F.2d 57 (10th Cir. 1965).
